

July 2017

Pato Frio Grande Escolha 2015

13,5%

From Vidigueira. Part fermented and aged in French oak. Slow ferment. Very pale gold and an alluringly intense aroma of ripe citrus, cedar and creamy oak with just a touch of spice, but the fruit stands up to the oak very well. On the palate too there is terrific depth of fruit that is finely melded to the mealy, creamy texture of the oak and excellent freshness. Perhaps even better than the 2014. A long way to go, knowing how well this variety can age (JH)

17 pts

Scores:

17- Superior

16- Distinguished

15- Average, a perfectly nice drink with no faults

Julia Harding MW Jancisrobinson.com